2024 Ripcord Reunion

Myrtle Beach, SC

The Hilton Doubletree Resort

Oct 27 thru Oct 30

Do not miss this one!

The 2024 Reunion will be at The Hilton Doubletree Oceanfront Resort located at the south end of Myrtle Beach. It is three miles (10 minutes) from the Myrtle Beach Airport. Also located just two miles from the Market Common Shopping and Restaurant District, formally the old Air Force base. And you are just 10 miles from fine-dining restaurants with white table cloths to burger joints where you can discard peanut shells on the floor in Murrells Inlet. Known as the “Seafood Capital of South Carolina.”

Ripcord Association Update

by Pete Meloro

Hello again from New Jersey. I hope everyone had a great Christmas and New Year. Another year has passed and another reunion in Springfield, Missouri. As usual, we enjoyed the time spent with each other and from that perspective, it was a reunion enjoyed by all who attended. However, I must address the general failure of the University Plaza Hotel to deliver a satisfactory experience for anyone who stayed at the hotel. Our stay was replete with long delays and lines upon checking in to the hotel. This was compounded by the fact that rooms were not cleaned and available upon checking in. Several members waited hours for the rooms to be made available. We also endured less than quality customer service on the part of some hotel staff, and last but certainly not least, the hotel experienced significant issues with the supply of hot water. This resulted in far too many of us having to take cold showers. On a scale of 1 to 10 with 10 being outstanding, I would rate our experience at 1, and that is only because the kitchen staff was responsive to all our needs and did an admirable job during the reunion. Board members were forced to spend far too much time meeting with the Managers of the hotel in an attempt to address the many complaints. Fortunately, our contractual obligation to this hotel is finished.

On to 2024 where our reunion is scheduled to be held in Myrtle Beach, South Carolina. Let me start by saying that there WILL BE A LADIES AUCTION. Given our negative recent hotel experience and feedback we received from many members, we have contracted with a Hilton Hotel in Myrtle Beach. This should be a significant upgrade in our hotel experience. Obviously, when we upgraded the level of the hotel, that comes with higher cost. The basic daily rate for the hotel will be $107. Unfortunately, this hotel and most hotels add a Resort Fee and taxes, which will bring the daily rate to approximately $137. Unlike past reunions, breakfast will not be included but, thankfully, parking will be at no cost. The daily rate and free parking were secured after many hours of negotiation. We were offered a 20% discount on breakfast but the cost of breakfast was prohibitive. We will work on putting together a list of available locations that offer breakfast.

I hope this Newsletter finds everyone doing well.

Dear Ripcord Association,

First of all, thank you so much for inviting me to attend and meet so many of you at the reunion in Missouri last year. It truly was an honor to meet you and tell you about the Robert Kalsu Legacy Project here at Del City High School (DCHS) in Del City, Oklahoma.

We have now fundraised enough to proceed with the building of an heroic size statue of Del City 63' Alum Robert Kalsu, who after an All American Football Career at the University of Oklahoma and "Rookie of the Year" performance in his only year with the Buffalo Bills, became the only professional athlete killed in the Vietnam War .

On 21 July 1970, America and Del City lost a TRUE All American . Robert Kalsu was a man of great honor, courage, commitment and character. Now 54 years later, DCHS is remembering and honoring Kalsu on Friday, 29 March 2024, (Vietnam War Veterans Day), at 1300 (1 pm) at DCHS where we will unveil and dedicate this statue. This statue will serve to inspire generations of future Del City Eagle students in the many years ahead.

All of the Ripcord Association members are invited to attend this ceremony, which will include a documentary film and a reception. The entire Kalsu Family is expected to be there. Classmates, teammates and Battle Buddies are invited to attend. Legendary Oklahoma Football Coach Barry Switzer and Ripcord Association and fellow soldier from the 101st Airborne, Mike Renner, will make comments. It is going to be a time to remember.

Very Respectfully,
John Keilty

I have only recently learned of the Ripcord Association and therefore I am requesting membership. My connection to the FSB is detailed below.

My initial assignment in the 101st was as a platoon leader in 1/327. I was brought out of the field in May or June, 1970 and put in the position of Aide de Camp to one of the Assistant Division Commanders - Supply (BG Olin E. Smith). I didn't request this reassignment and no one ever explained why I was chosen. I asked to return to my platoon in the field and was denied.

So...towards the end of Ripcord the division commander, MG Hennessy, went on leave to (I think) Japan to visit his wife. At that time division headquarters made the decision to put the acting division commanders on station via helicopter over Ripcord, not to command but observe. Since the CG was out of the country the acting division commander was the ASD for Operations, BG Sidney Berry. When he wasn't on station, my boss BG Smith and I were in the air over FSB Ripcord. If the CG had been in country he and BG Berry would have alternated the task and my boss would not have been involved, as his primary role was the supply side. As a side note, I have met the brigade commander, Col. Harrison, during meetings at division hq. He struck me as a very smart guy who quickly grasped the important details of a problem.

That's my connection to Ripcord. I am deeply sorry it happened but being part of it was a distant honor for me. Currahee!

Screaming Eagle Won't Go Navy

CAMP EVANS - A young 101st soldier recently received a letter from a Navy recruiter explaining the Navy's 120-day enlistment program.

The letter told him of his vulnerability to the draft, since he had completed his pre-induction physical examination, and that the Navy's delayed enlistment program might be the one for him.

Such letters are not uncommon to the draft-aged youths, but for Spec. 4 John R. Heber, Harleyville, Pa., it was a case of better never than late.

Heber is veteran of eight months in Vietnam with Co. A, 1st Bn. (Airmobile), 506th Infantry.

In his letter of reply, the Currahee soldier candidly informed his recruiter, "Yes, I have completed my pre-induction Selective Service examination, and my Selective Service induction examination. I have also received my cholera and plague shots, not to mention a one-year supply of malaria tablets."

"I would like very much to talk to you concerning your enlistment program, but my company commander feels he cannot grant me a 30-day leave to discuss my enlistment with you."

Story taken from "The Screaming Eagle" Army newspaper dated 02 Feb 1970 Vol. III, No.4.

Side note: "My daughter just gave me a new whiskey glass engraved with: ARMY Because No One Played Navy As A Kid." BILL HEATH Editor.

TWO RIPCORD WARRIORS CROSS OVER

It is with great sadness that I must advise of the recent deaths of two Ripcord stalwarts, who were as good as it gets.

Ralph “Ralphie Boy” Motta passed away on November 8th, 2023, in his hometown of Hingham, Massachusetts. A graveyard service was celebrated on November 15, 2023 at the St. Paul’s Cemetery in Hingham. Ralphie Boy was a 19-year old pointman on one of the battalion recon teams for most of his tour, prior to being assigned as a clerk typist to the rear Tactical Operations Center (the “TOC”) at Camp Evans. Later in my tour, I was assigned to the rear TOC as a battalion liaison officer, where I first met Ralphie Boy. Ralphie Boy enjoyed a wonderful reputation as a magnificent soldier while performing his duties as a pointman on the recon team. His recon teammate and great friend, John Schnarr, would characterize Ralphie Boy as a man of great courage whose compassionate heart was devoted to those soldiers he served with on the recon team.

Ralphie Boy was greatly admired, respected and loved by his comrades on the recon team. He was somewhat of an introvert and was incapable of boasting about his many achievements while in the field. Ralphie Boy was one of the most unassuming men I have ever known. He loved the soldiers with whom he served, and his delightful personality coupled with his great courage in battle, made him the magnificent warrior he was. Ralphie Boy was probably the most naïve and idealistic soldier that I ever served with in Vietnam

While serving in the rear TOC, Ralphie Boy greatly enjoyed the banter among the other soldiers working in the rear TOC, prior to his return to the States. Ralphie Boy served about six (6) months at Fort Polk before separating from the Army and returning to Massachusetts. After graduating from college and marrying his wife Rosemary, Ralphie Boy spent the rest of his life working in the seafood business in Boston. One of the great passions in Ralphie Boy’s life was drinking Heineken beer in great quantities when he gathered with his Ripcord buddies from the rear TOC and the recon team. These were the happiest of times for Ralphie Boy. He was always a joy to be with. To know him was to love him.

Chuck “Big Dog” Damron passed away after a lengthy illness on November 25, 2023 at the Veteran’s facility in Springville, California. He will be buried at Riverside National Cemetery in Riverside, California on January 12, 2024. Chuck was originally assigned as a rifleman in the 1st Infantry Division which was then located in the southern part of South Vietnam. When the Big Red One returned to the States, Chuck was reassigned to second platoon of Charlie Company of the 2nd Battalion of the 506th Infantry Regiment of the 101st Airborne Division. I was the second platoon leader when Chuck arrived in the platoon. I assigned him to the third squad under Sgt. Jerry Moyer. After serving as a rifleman for a month or so, I assigned Chuck to a machine gun team as the assistant gunner to Layne Hammons. No lieutenant in Vietnam could have been blessed more than myself to have had the great machine gun teams that served with me in Vietnam. Chuck and Layne were special and were admired and respected by all who served with them. Chuck was an extrovert with a warm and outgoing personality while Layne was more introverted with a non-confrontational personality. They both had a willingness and great desire to quickly bring absolute “scunion” on the enemy in a firefight. They both knew that being on a machine gun team was not a job for the timid or weak of heart. Together, they were best described as “bad ass”. They served with great distinction and never shirked a duty.

Chuck was a natural born leader who had the heart and courage of a lion in battle, yet was always cheerful in all weathers. He was devoted to the warriors he served with in combat. His leadership qualities made life much easier for his old lieutenant. A lieutenant could not ask for a more courageous and loyal warrior to command.

After separating from the Army, Chuck moved back to California, at which time he married, and he and his wife soon were blessed with the birth of two daughters, Onnie Bomgaars and Shawna Lange, who he loved with all of his heart. Chuck went to work as an iron worker.

To more fully understand how fierce a man like Chuck could be, the following story will give you a good idea of what kind of man Chuck was.

“One day after work, Chuck and a friend of his stopped by a bar to have a drink. Chuck’s friend was wearing a “Vietnam” hat. A short time later, a guy comes up to Chuck’s friend at the bar and said to him: ‘You Vietnam veterans are nothing but a bunch of losers.’ Chuck said to himself, ‘this guy needs an ass whipping, and I’m the man to give him one’. Chuck then proceeded to give the poor soul a vicious beating which resulted in serious injury to the guy. Chuck was charged with aggravated assault and battery and was convicted by the court and sentenced to two years in prison. When Layne and I located Chuck 28 years later, he was telling us the story and I said to him, “Chuck, you should have never done this. You going to prison ruined your life”. He looked at me and he said, “Lt., it was worth it, the man needed a beating, and I can promise you one thing; that sorry loudmouth will never in his life make a derogatory statement to a Vietnam veteran again.”

All in all, I loved Chuck and Ralphie Boy like brothers. These two courageous cavaliers served the nation with great pride and dignity. Men like them are our nation’s greatest treasure. They defined the term “American Fighting Men”. They both were the heart and soul of the units they fought with in battle. They were both not only magnificent warriors, but also magnificent human beings.
